

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

RUDI JIMENEZ,

Plaintiff,

v.

TIJUANA LLC,

Defendant.

Case No.: 2:20-cv-00765-RFB-VCF

ORDER

(Docket No. 28)

On August 5, 2020, the parties participated in an Early Neutral Evaluation Session (“ENE”) before the Court and reached a settlement of the instant case. Docket No. 27. The Court ordered the parties to file their stipulation of dismissal no later than September 2, 2020. Id. The Court further told the parties, on the record, that if they were unable to comply with the deadline the Court set, they could file a request to extend that deadline on the docket.

The parties have now filed a joint status report regarding settlement. Docket No. 28. The parties submit that they filed the status report “in accordance with the Court’s Order” of August 5, 2020. Id. at 1. The parties further submit that they are currently in the process of finalizing the settlement agreement and anticipate that it will be executed “within the next few weeks.” Id.

The Court construes the parties’ filing as a request to extend the deadline for submitting the stipulation of dismissal in the instant case, which the Court GRANTS. Docket No. 28. The Court extends the deadline to file the stipulation of dismissal¹ in the instant case to October 2,

¹ To be clear, the Court did not previously order the parties to file a status report and the Court is not doing so now.

1 2020. If the parties cannot meet that deadline, the parties may file a proper request to extend the
2 deadline.

3 IT IS SO ORDERED.

4 DATED: September 1, 2020.
